THE REPORTED DEATH OF GEN. GRANT.

The New York Evening Post of Saturday contains the following dispatch from its Washington correspondent

ington correspondent:

"The Restructan, which is somewhat given to startling news, alarmed the town to-day with the announcement of Gen. Grant's death in an assault upon Vicksburg. The news-boys filled the streets with their cries of "the death of Gen. Grant," 3.

The above paragraph looks a little malicious. We did not announce Gen. Grant's death, in so many words. We stated that the rebel pickets on the Happohanusck shouled across the fiver" the Yankess have captured Vicksburg, and Gen. Grant is killed;" and was cautioned our readers against believing it, on the ground that the enemy have frequently deceived our bickets. AN ERROR REASSERTED

The person who is temporarily corresponding com this city for the N. Y. Commercial Athertier makes the following statement

"Although it has been coutradicted, it is true that the President did receive a dispatal : the coat the rrespont did receive a dispatch a day or two ago from Gen. Grant, in which he stated that he had interceived a dispatch from the rebel feeretary of War (not Jeff. Davis, as published, by Gen. Pemberton, stating that if he could hold out at Vicksburg fifteen days longer, he could send him a hundred thousand men."

It was contradicted, by authority, in the columns of the Rurentican. Gen. Grant we stated that he had intercepted any dispatch whatercy. He merely wrote that he had heard such er, which materially reduces the importance of the declaration.

THREE ASSAULTS REPULSED.

THE FEDERAL LOSSES. 8,100 Prisoners and $4 Guns Taken.

CINCINNATI, June 1 .- The Commercial has Grant's army up the 33d uit.

When our army advanced on Vicksburg it was confident of an easy conquest of the place, but the ground in the rear of the city was found so broken and rugged as to be als impossible by artillery, and the rebel fortifica tions, which were very formidable, being grain grown, showing that preparations had long since been made to stand a siege upoff the land of forts, about eight hundred yards apart, con-nected by deep intreachments and extending seven miles.

Our loss in the assault on the 23d ult., was about two thousand.

It was the opinion that another general assault would not be ordered, but that the city would be taken by regular slege approaches

The Gazette has advices up to the 27th uit. through a staff officer of one of Grant's gener als, who left for Washington last evening Three assaults have been made by our forces in all of which they were repulsed. The last assenit was made by Gen. Sherman, with 20,090 men. We lost 600 killed and a large number Our outer line was within one hundred yards of the rebel works. Our sharpshooters could prevent the rebels from working their guns. The rebel works near the city are far mor rmidable than those in front.

Johnston is in the neighborhood of Jackso ith about fifteen thousand men, short of provisious and ammunition. No apprehensions are felt of a renewed at

The news of the destruction of some Amerian vessels off Pernambuce by the piratical ruisers has reached England.

Mr. Leyard stated in Parliament that the Consul at Mobile was promptly dis-for shiping specie on a British war

In the House of Lords, the Marquis Clanri-carde denounced the selaure of British vessels by United States cruisers as a violation of the law of nations, and complained of the proce-dure adopted by the United States prize courts. Lord Russell defeaded the course of the American Government, and said all their com-numications showed they fully respected inter-national law, and desired to act accordingly. The law officers of the Crown in all cases of complaint reported there was no rational ground of objection to the decisions of the United States prize courts. He thought the lockade runners, when they lost a vessel, deblocksde runners, when they lost a vessel, de-manded redress with all the airs of injured in-nocemen. He denied that the Alabama was fitted out with the cognizance of the British Government.

Earl Derby fully concurred with Lord Rus-sell, and thought that every allowance ought to be made for the provocation.

Captains Boyd and Balley, of the Lincoln Osvairy, started from Berryville a few days ago with two companies, crossed the Shenan-doah at Berry's Ford, skirted the Blue Ridge countain to Snicker's Gap, and then crossed the country between the Gap and Fairfax Court House, where they strived Sunday.

It had been reported that a considerable force the enemy's cavalry was hovering about the not part with them; that they must not leave Blue Ridge, but no signs of them were discovered. Both of the officers who conducted the expedition are well known for their bravery, and would have given a good account of them solves if they had encountered any of the enemy's forces.
